London Bus Museum invites you to ride FREE on old buses in East London, on route 101. We are running vehicles from the London Bus Museum collection and from friends and bus operators.

Buses will carry conductors and will serve all bus stops along the route to North Woolwich. They will run every few minutes between Manor Park and Cyprus and about every 10 minutes to Wanstead and North Woolwich.

Saturday 26th March between 10am and 5pm.

Buses date mainly from the 1950s and 1960s, so are not wheelchair accessible.

This free service runs by kind agreement of Transport for London, but is not a TfL service
