Looking after your personal data

In accordance with the 2018 Data Protection Act (GDPR), the London Bus Preservation Trust Ltd. may hold and use personal information about you for volunteering reasons and to keep in touch with you. This information includes that contained in this form which may be stored in both paper and computer form.

This information is held securely and only accessed by authorised persons. It is never shared or passed onto other organisations.

What happens next?

Your application will be carefully considered by the Volunteering Manager who will contact you to arrange a time for you to visit the Museum for an informal chat. This will be the opportunity for you to ask questions about the Museum, about volunteering and about your preferred roles.

If you and the Volunteering Manager agree that working at the London Bus Museum would be good for you, we will ask you to sign our Volunteer Agreement and you will receive a copy of the Volunteer Handbook. You would serve a short probationary period and after review, join the team by mutual agreement.
